

PROCLAMATION

BOROUGH OF RED BANK

75th Anniversary of the Halloween Parade

WHEREAS, the Borough of Red Bank will be celebrating the 75th Anniversary of the Red Bank Halloween Parade; and

WHEREAS, to commemorate the Diamond Anniversary of the famed Halloween Parade, the Parks and Recreation Department held a community contest to select the theme for 2023; and

WHEREAS, from the numerous outstanding suggestions, the Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee selected the winning submittals from residents: Pat Pinto, Lincoln Ramirez, Frank Woods, and Anthony Montalbano; and

WHEREAS, the Parks and Recreation Department, in partnership with the Red Bank RiverCenter, will be transforming the downtown area in preparation of this auspicious autumnal anniversary, with flags and banners.

NOW THEREFORE, I, William Portman, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the Borough of Red Bank. I hereby proclaim that for the 75th Anniversary of the Halloween Parade, to be held Sunday, October 22, 2023, the Borough of Red Bank, New Jersey will be renamed:

"Boo Bank" A Tale of Fright from Broad to White

---

William Portman