

PROCLAMATION

BOROUGH OF RED BANK

PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION WEEK

WHEREAS, public service is a calling which has meant so much to so many. It embodies our sense of shared values and reflects our drive to serve a cause beyond our own – to give back, to leave our mark and nudge history forward. There is no greater opportunity to help more people or to make a bigger difference. During Public Employee Recognition Week we honor the men and women who power our local government and we recommit to tackling the toughest challenges with the most talented workforce.

WHEREAS, public employees at the federal, state, county and city levels dedicate their careers to public service by contributing to professional industries, such as health care, education, public safety, conservation and national defense; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated public servants perform their duties with compassion, professionalism and a commitment to those they serve; and

WHEREAS, the importance of public service provided by public employees and volunteers is too often forgotten or ignored; and

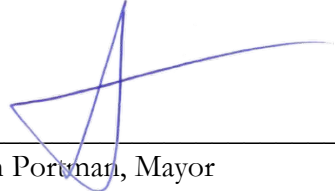

WHEREAS, Red Bank extends our appreciation and gratitude to all public employees for their continued spirit of dedication; we honor the men and women who power our local government. We recognize all those who dedicate their lives to this noble pursuit, and we celebrate the tremendous difference they make every day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William Portman, Mayor of the Borough of Red Bank, do hereby proclaim

MAY 5 – 11, 2024 PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION WEEK

to honor and recognize all public employees and remind the citizens of Red Bank of the importance of public service.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 25th day of April 2024.

William Portman, Mayor
