

MINUTES
REGULAR MEETING
MUNICIPAL COUNCIL – BOROUGH OF RED BANK
APRIL 13, 2004
5:30 P.M.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

ROLL CALL

PRESENT: Mayor McKenna and Council Members Beck, Hintelmann, Menna, Bifani, Murphy and Curley.

ALSO PRESENT: Administrator Sickels, Borough Clerk Vivona, Chief Financial Officer Loversidge, Engineer Kosenski, Attorney O'Connor and Auditor Kaplan.

SUNSHINE STATEMENT

Mayor McKenna requested the minutes reflect that, in compliance with Public Law 1975, Chapter 231 (Open Public Meetings Act), notice of this meeting has been provided by notifying the Asbury Park Press, the Courier, the Two River Times and the Star Ledger and by placing a notice on the bulletin board and filing same with the Borough Clerk on January 4, 2004.

SUSPEND REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. Curley offered a motion to suspend the regular order of business, seconded by Mr. Murphy.

ROLL CALL:

AYES: Beck, Hintelmann, Menna, Bifani, Murphy, Curley

NAYS: None

There being six ayes and no nays, the motion was declared approved.

Public Hearing of 2004 Municipal Budget

Mayor McKenna said we would not be adopting the budget tonight but would be holding the public hearing.

Mayor McKenna opened the public hearing and asked if anyone would like to speak, no one appearing he closed the public hearing.

Mr. Menna offered a motion to close the public hearing, seconded by Mr. Curley.

ROLL CALL:

AYES: Beck, Hintelmann, Menna, Bifani, Murphy, Curley

NAYS: None

There being six ayes and no nays, the motion was declared approved.

Councilwoman Beck said that she has distributed a memorandum to the members of the governing body with suggestions on ways to reduce the proposed tax increase.

Mayor McKenna said the Finance Committee should meet to discuss any changes and come back with their recommendation.

Councilman Curley said that we should implement the Hotel/Motel tax in the Borough for an additional source of revenue.

Mayor McKenna said that he was member of the committee that worked with the League of Municipalities to implement the Hotel/Motel tax. He said that some municipalities have had problems with collection and this has put them in an awkward situation regarding their budgets. He said the purpose of the tax is to promote tourism in the State.

The governing body discussed the various problems municipalities have had with collecting the tax and the anticipated revenue that could be expected if the Borough chose to implement the ordinance. The governing body agreed the program had merit and should be discussed further.

Councilman Curley said that using this money for the Visitor's Center is fluff and the money collected from this tax should be used to reduce the budget. He also said that 15 percent of properties located in the Borough are tax-exempt, totaling $173 million.

Mayor McKenna said that Councilman Curley has not met with the other members of the Finance Committee to discuss the budget. He suggested that he meet with them and come back to the governing body with recommendations on cutting the budget.

Councilman Curley said that for the past 16 months he has had Finance Meetings every Monday at 10 a.m. preceding the Council Meeting on Tuesday.

The members of the Governing Body agreed that the entire Finance Committee should meet and get the budget in place for this year.

Councilwoman Beck asked that the Finance Committee discuss items in the memorandum she distributed tonight.

Mayor McKenna and Councilman Curley discussed the proper protocol for placing items on the agenda.

RESUME REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. Curley offered a motion to resume the regular order of business, seconded by Mr. Murphy.

WORKSHOP

Parking Deficiency Schedule Ordinance

Councilwoman Beck said that several commercial districts are not included in the parking deficiency schedule ordinance and said she would like to see all zones added. She also said that the ordinance should state that the Governing Body would be the only one authorized to grant a waiver on the fee.

Mayor McKenna said that we should look at not including part of Shrewsbury Avenue to encourage development in that area.

The Governing Body discussed other areas of town that are being redeveloped and agreed to introduce that ordinance at the next meeting with part of Shrewsbury Avenue not included and then amend the ordinance to add other sections of town if needed.

Demolition of 75 Chestnut Street

Councilman Bifani said we have received bids for demolition of the public works facility and have a resolution on the agenda tonight to award it to All Pro Contracting.

OLD BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS

AUDIENCE

David Prown – 44 Hillside Place – said that he heard Councilman Hintelmann is retiring and he would like to commend him for his many years of service to the Borough. He also said the Red Bank Initiative, in conjunction with other organizations, would be holding an Expo on May 1, 2004 at River Street Commons regarding 16 summer programs that are available to children of the town.

Jim Harris – 97 Mechanic Street – wanted to thank the Borough for placing “do not enter” signs on Washington Street. He also said that the Globe Court Park is in terrible shape.

Councilwoman Beck said that she agreed and would ask Code Enforcement to issue a summons.

Mr. Harris asked if the governing body has a policy on “no bid contracts.”

Mayor McKenna said everything goes out to bid in Red Bank and if it is below the bidding threshold we receive two or three quotes.

Steve Fitzpatrick – 32 Chestnut Street - said he reviewed the election reports and said he would like to encourage the governing body to adopt a policy regarding campaign contributions. He also said that we have the best public works department in Monmouth County.

Jack Pivnick – 30 Irving Place – asked if there is a Councilperson assigned to the Environmental Commission.

Mayor McKenna said the Council Representative is Councilwoman Beck.

Mr. Pivnick asked if the Environmental Commission reviews plans for development and if there was a representative from the Environmental Commission on the Planning Board.

Mayor McKenna said yes and Mr. DiMento is on both.

Mr. Pivnick said he is glad the Environmental Commission is reviewing the development in town and said that part of the development fees should be given to the Environmental Commission.

Tricia Rumola – 66 Riverside Avenue – said she heard that Hubbards Bridge might be opening ahead of schedule.

Mayor McKenna said it is almost completed.

Joe Reffetto – 140 Hudson Avenue – said he is going to miss Councilman Hintelmann and said he is concerned about the development on Wharf Avenue. He also said this area is particularly beautiful because of its proximity to the river.

Councilman Menna said we have just adopted a formal listing of all the properties in town that the Historic Preservation Commission feels are historically significant in Red Bank and the development of those properties would have to be reviewed by the Historic Preservation Commission. He said we have also appointed Larry Quigley as the attorney to the Historic Preservation Commission and have talked about implementing a 90-day moratorium on development in certain parts of the town. He said the governing body has also been talking about revisiting the master plan.
